Principal's Address

Dear Alumni,

The years have a way of moving on, whether or not we wish them to do so. Can you remember back to your very first day of school? Did it seem that it would take forever for you to become like those "big guys" in eighth grade? And, when you had become an eighth grader, didn't it seem as if it would be forever before you graduated from high school?

If you are like the rest of us, that's exactly the way it was. Yet somehow, those days passed (all too quickly according to some) and here you are, graduated from our school and busy with your adult life.

It is my sincere hope that what you will read here will allow you to pause for a moment and reflect on the days you spent in our school. I hope that in those reflections you will smile a bit as you recall those days of youth. I hope you will return to your school for a while and savor the time you spent there.

This will always be YOUR school, just as it was then.

May this yearbook bring you happy memories.

Mr. Joseph Cheney

Congratulation Rockets! 1985 State Semi-Finalists

All Your Fans & Supporters Say "Well Done!"

The Rockets are Seaway Conference champions with a 12-0 record and they bring a glittering 23-2 season record into the Semi-finals.

Dan Wright is in his 18th season as head coach. His teams have won six District and six league titles.

Reeths Puffer is a well-balanced team with good quickness from both its guards. Opponents must be wary of Quinn Barry and Andre Johnson. There is bulk inside from 6-8 Mark Hughes, who the college recruiters are after. And 6-3 Tim Schuppe is also a key player.

The Rockets made it to the Regional finals a year ago before being knocked out. They had a 20-4 record in 1983-84, giving them a combined 43-6 mark over the past two seasons.

It has been a season of streaks for this school. Reeths Puffer opened with six straight victories before losing to Muskegon Catholic Central. Twelve more victories followed before the only other loss of the season to Rockford.

Wright says his team is successful because his players know their roles and play them well. "We are team oriented and unselfish," he says.

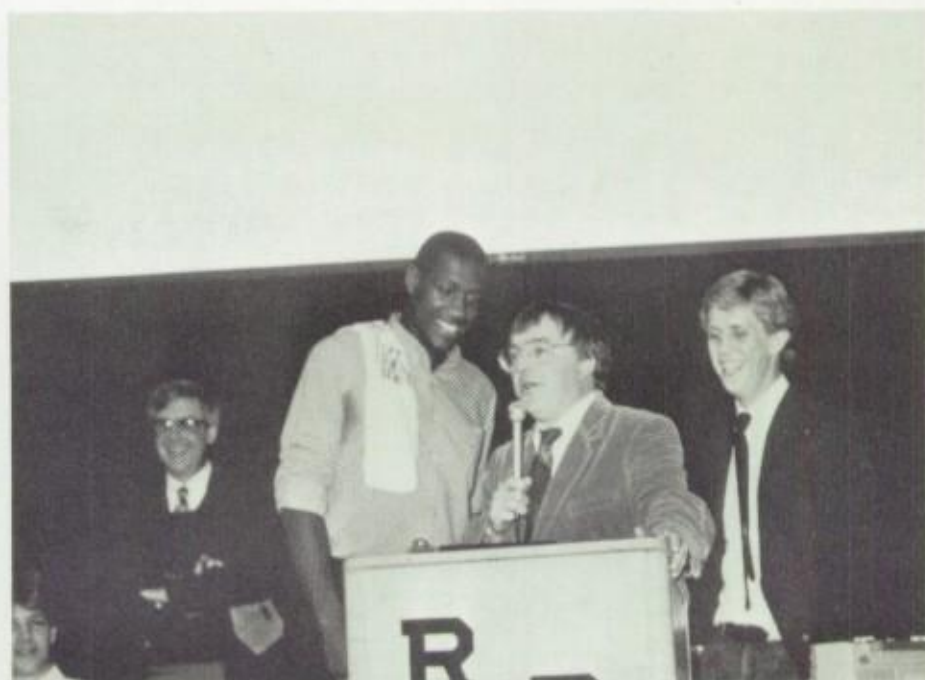

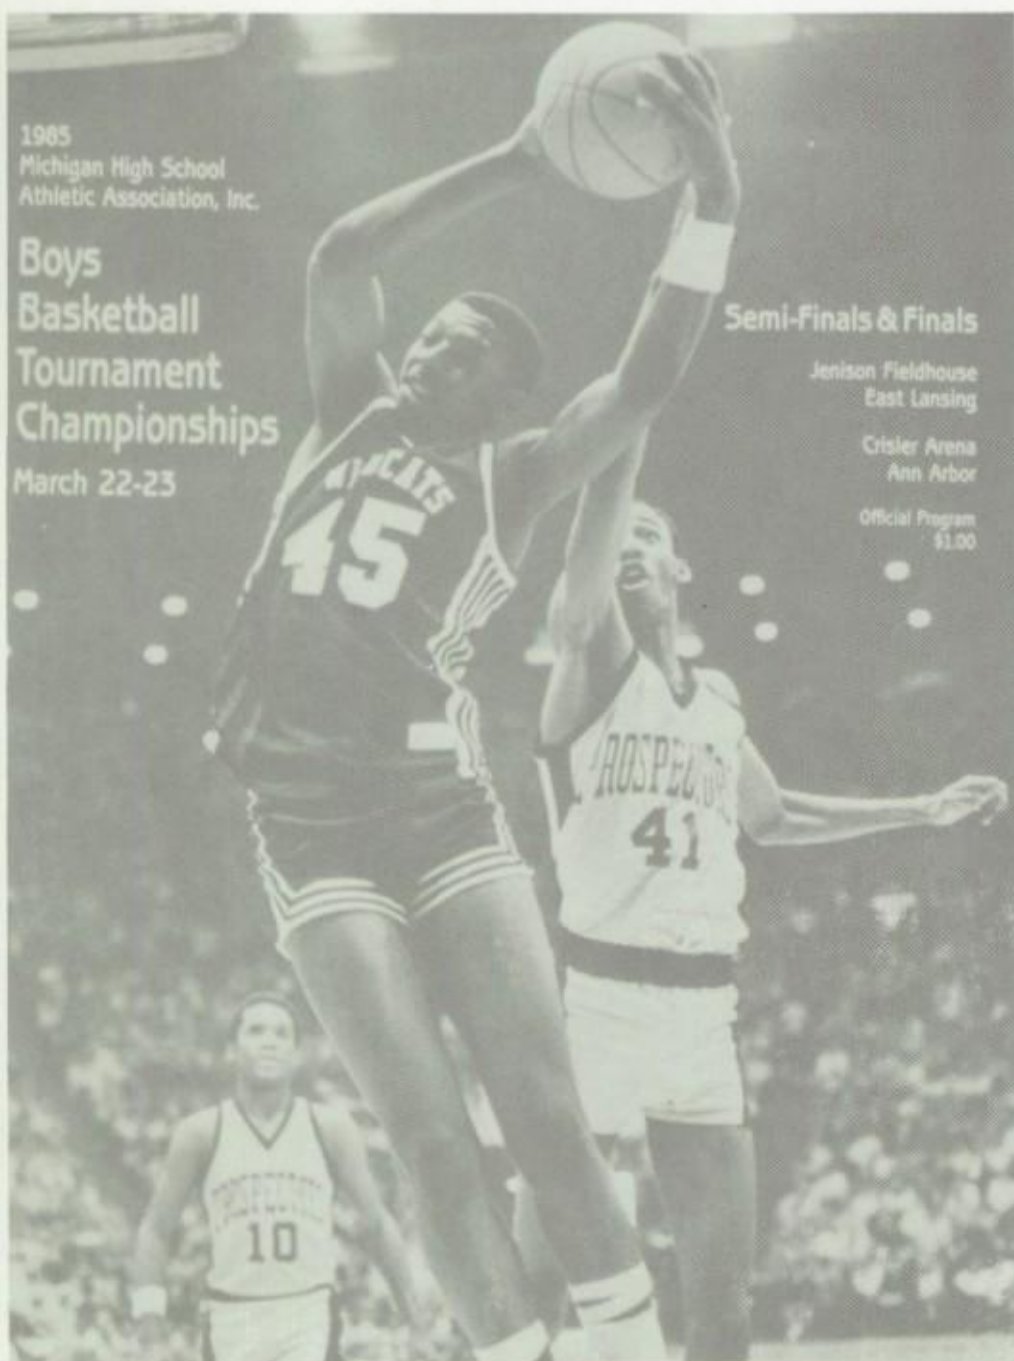

As you'll note below, opponents have a very difficult time scoring on the Rockets. They play defense very well and those quick guards are difficult to get past.

Hughes has had a spectacular season and he's very tough to stop offensively.

As for Wright, he's closing in on the 300-victory plateau in his career. If the Rockets win the State title in Ann Arbor this weekend, he'll go into next season with 297.

Homecoming 1984-1985

The 1984-85 Homecoming was once again an evening to remember. The moment everyone had been waiting for had finally arrived. It was time to find out who would be crowned 1984-85 Homecoming King and Queen. The King candidates were Adrian Cotton, Bob Homfeld, Mark Hughes, Rick Kinstner, and Brian Schrag. The Queen candidates, Jill Baker, Wendi Brazaski, Linda Ericksen, Jody Olsen and Karen Russell were escorted by their fathers onto the field. Mark Hughes and Jody Olsen were chosen as the 1984-85 Homecoming King and Queen. Runners-up were Adrian Cotton and Wendi Brazaski. The sophomore representatives were Troy Monette and Lynn Cooper, and the Junior representatives were Rich Kramer and Amy Martinez. Mickey Brazaski and Carmen Van Nieuwenhuyzen were the future King and Queen. The student council, with Jill Baker as chairperson and Tracey Hopma as co-chairperson, did a fine job organizing and preparing for this Homecoming ceremony.

"Almost Anything Goes"

Seniors are full of spirit.

The 7th annual Almost Anything Goes was more exciting this year than ever. The games were 1st and 10, Fireman's Relay, Bombs Away, Bucket Brigade, Pumpkin Relay and the Obstacle Course. The outcome of the games was a tie between the Seniors and the Sophomores, each having 130 points. The attendance, 100 seniors, 85 juniors, and 115 sophomores served as the breaker. The overall outcome was sophomores in 1st place with 160 points, seniors in 2nd place with 150 points and juniors in 3rd place with 110 points. Following the fun and games was a bonfire including cheers and chants from the cheerleaders, a pep talk from Coach Kutches, and the burning of a Ludington Oriole to gear the students of Reeths-Puffer High School for the homecoming game.

Coach Kutches gives a pep talk.

The Investigation of Myth

The important thinkers Carl G. Jung and Claude Lévi-Strauss have presented relevant theories of mythic thinking and have proposed useful methods for analyzing myths. For the purposes of this paper I will first present the theoretical foundation of each of these men, then I will use the example of the White Buffalo Woman myth in the book Black Elk Speaks to demonstrate how the theories apply to a specific myth, and finally I will compare the interpretations and theories of Jung versus Lévi-Strauss. Jung puts primary stress on the origin of mythic thinking as projected from the unconscious psyche. Jung, interested in the workings of the mind, came up with a theory (based on Freud) in which the mind is divided into the rational, individualistic consciousness, and the unconscious also consisting of a personal and collective unconscious. The personal unconscious consists of a sexual personality the opposite of the conscious mind, and the collective unconscious consists of a gender (anima versus animus). Personal represents the individual's unconscious, and the collective unconscious represents the unconscious of the race. Jung's theory is important in the way they came up with myths in order to help explain the opposite of the conscious mind. Personal represents the individual's unconscious, and the collective unconscious represents the unconscious of the race. Jung's theory is important in the way they came up with myths in order to help explain the opposite of the conscious mind.
